

Apparently, a group of banks is challenging a section of Indiana's telephone privacy law. Just because I do business with a company or bank, does not mean that I want unsolicited phone calls at my home! Please leave Indiana's no-call list as is.

Thank you